Billing and Payment Procedures

General

Dr. McLennan is credentialing with most major insurance companies. Your insurance(s) will be billed as a courtesy to you regardless of his participation status. Keep in mind that if he is not a contracted provider you may owe more than the typical deductibles and coinsurance amounts. It is your responsibility to be aware and fully understand your own insurance policies, allowances and pre-certification requirements.

All charges are your responsibility and some services may not be a covered benefit on your plan. You will be billed for all non covered services, deductibles, copayments and any out of network patient balances.

If your insurance does not pay or deny a claim within a timely manner you may be asked to assist the billing office by contacting your insurance to help things along.

Medi-Cal

Dr. McLennan is not a contracted provider for Medi-Cal. You will be considered a cash patient if you choose to continue treatment with Dr. McLennan.

Medicare/Medi-cal

Medicare will be billed as your primary carrier. However, since Dr. McLennan is not a contracted provider for Medi-Cal you will be asked to pay the coinsurance portion (20% of Medicare's allowed amount) for each visit.

If you have further billing questions, feel free to contact Dr. McLennan's billing office:
